

CONTRAST GIS course in collaboration with GnosisGIS
Geospatial Health and Environment
 1-4 October, 2008, Chrismar Hotel, Livingstone, Zambia

	Wednesday 1/10	Thursday 2/10	Friday 3/10	Saturday 4/10
8.30-10.00	Welcome Introduction ArcInfo GIS package installation About GPS Introduction	Review of previous day and practical announcements Module 2.1 Health Data Preparation	Review of previous day and practical announcements Module 4 Buffer extractions and map queries	Review of previous day and practical announcements Module 9 Layouts and Presentations
Coffee/tea
10.30-12.30	GPS exercise GPS setup Taking coordinates Data transfer Plotting points on map Google Earth example	Module 2.2 Working with Projects in ArcGIS	Module 4 (continued)	Module 9 (continued)
Lunch
13.30-15.00	GIS tutorial About ArcGIS Module 1 Introduction to the Minimum Medical Database (MMDb)	Module 3 An introduction to satellite image analysis	Module 6 Climate Risk Analysis	Modules 5, 7, 8 – an overview
Coffee/tea
15.30-17.00	Module 1 (continued)	Module 3 (continued)	Module 6 (continued)	Closing remarks. Course evaluation

Dinner is served in the hotel restaurant, every day between 19hrs and 22 hrs.